

Workers Health & Safety Awareness

Responsibilities & Processes

1. Due Diligence: The legal responsibility of employers and supervisors is to take all reasonable _____ to ensure worker safety.
2. Workers have the right to _____ work if they believe it is dangerous to themselves or others.
3. Workplace Hazards: Any condition, process, or substance that could cause _____ or illness.
4. Personal Protective Equipment: Safety gear required to minimize exposure to _____.
5. Health & Safety Representative is a worker chosen to represent _____ in smaller workplaces to identify hazards and improve safety conditions.
6. Regular _____ of the workplace to identify hazards and ensure compliance with OHS regulations.
7. Employers must _____ a safe workplace, training, equipment, and supervision to protect workers.
8. Workers must follow _____ procedures, wear PPE, report hazards, and not endanger themselves or others.
9. Occupational Illness is a disease or condition caused by workplace _____.

1. Precautions, 2. Refuse, 3. Injury, 4. Hazards, 5. Employees, 6. Checks, 7. Provide, 8. Safety, 9. Exposure